

DIAMONDS AND DOVES.

Yes, Diamonds and Doves at Jaynes' Grocery—but they are Diamond 'C' and Dove Brand Hams. Diamonds are admired, of course—but no more than these Hams are pleasing to the taste, for they are as pure as a dove. Try them, try them.

Coffee! Coffee!

Austin, Nichols & Co.'s Blue Ribbon Brand, Leggett and Co.'s Special Blend and Arbuckle's—all roasted—are too well known to need any explanation.

I have in my store one of the best mills to be had, and all coffee bought from me will be ground free of charge and with pleasure.

Yours respectfully,
C. G. JAYNES.

July 13, 1890.

—A most enjoyable evening was spent by a number of young people of Wallaha and West Union last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mickle. The party was given in honor of the Misses Zolmar, of St. Augustine, Fla. Everyone enjoyed the splendid hospitality of the kind hostess to the fullest.

—You will be agreeably surprised in bringing your prescriptions to see the care I take in filling them. This is one work of the druggist that must be carefully attended to. No matter whose blank your prescription is written on, bring it to me and have it filled with the freshest and purest drugs to be had. Anything in the drug line at Lumley's, Seneca, South Carolina.

—Mr. J. W. Vissage showed us quite a curiosity last Saturday in the shape of a bullet passed from the heart of a tree at the Justice mill, on Stump-house mountain. As an 18-inch piece of heart timber was being sawed it was noticed that the saw struck some foreign substance, and on examination it was found that a minnie ball or unusually large bullet had been sawed through. Mr. Vissage says that from his knowledge of trees and the penetrating force of a bullet he is satisfied the ball has lain imbedded in the heart of the tree at least forty years.

NEWS ITEMS FROM WESTMINSTER.

The Local Intelligence from Our Sister Town: A Christian Engineer.

WESTMINSTER, July 12.—Treasurer Blake, of Abbeville, S. C., and Mr. McCurdy, of Mayesville, Ga., were guests of Rev. S. L. Wilson recently.

Miss Edie and Jessie Stripling are visiting in Wallaha and attending the County Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. J. C. Mulkey, of Abbeville, Ga., is spending some time in Westminster with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor.

Miss Lucy Murphy, a handsome young lady of Anderson, is visiting Miss Hattie Zimmerman.

Mr. L. L. Munson, Tracing Clerk of the Georgia railroad, with head quarters at Augusta, and Mr. J. W. Munson, Baggage Master between Charlotte and Augusta, spent a week recently with their brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. S. Ogg.

Mr. Wm. Bibb, manager of the Southern Flour Mills, wishes to buy all the good wheat that is for sale. At present he is paying seventy cents per bushel. The mill is running on full time and manufactures first class flour.

Married, at Palzer, on Wednesday, July 5, Mr. Joseph Cobb and Miss Fannie Davenport. They arrived here Wednesday evening and drove to the residence of the groom's mother, on Chauga. Mr. Cobb is an operative in the Wallaha Cotton Mill and will reside there in the future.

George Dewey, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Ogg, who has been critically ill during the past five weeks, is improving.

There will be services in the Baptist church next Sunday. Rev. Frank O'Kelly, of Mayesville, Ga., is expected to preach in the morning and evening.

Our friend, Mr. Claude Little, was over in White county, Georgia, a few days ago. He reports a pleasant visit and good crops.

The Peden and Anderson Banking Company have erected a very pretty and convenient store house on their lot on Main street. It will be occupied by Cannon & Smith with a stock of general merchandise. Mr. J. H. V. Hobson was the contractor. He pushed the work so rapidly that the building was completed at the end of six days. It has a tin roof, which was put on by Mr. Walter Rhyne, Westminster's tinner.

Mr. A. H. Dagnall, who taught school in South Georgia up to the first week in July, is now running between Charlotte and Jacksonville as railway postal clerk. Prof. W. A. Dagnall, another son of our Methodist preacher, Rev. R. R. Dagnall, has stood a successful examination and has the promise of a similar position which he expects to take charge of in a short time. His work will probably be over the Southern railway between Atlanta and Charlotte.

These young men are bright and highly educated and are sure to be successful in life. We hear their civil service examinations were far above the average applicants.

Mr. D. J. Fant is a Christian engineer of the Southern Railway, and passes Westminster twelve times a week handling the throttle of the local freight engine on his run between Greenville and Toccoa. He resides at Greenville.

Mr. Fant takes advantage of every opportunity of doing good by distributing tracts, religious books and literature. He contributes largely of his earnings to the various causes at home and to foreign missions. Placed as he is he comes in contact with a great many people, and the good he accomplishes is incalculable.

Last Monday he discovered two cows on the track just outside the incorporate limits of Westminster. The usual signal was sounded, but the cattle remained on the track. He was running at full speed, but brought his engine to a standstill and had the cattle driven off. To be in Mr. Fant's company a while will convince a person that God can be served as well on a locomotive as anywhere else.

Miss Nellie Mulkey, aged eight years, makes a very accommodating assistant in the post office in the absence of Miss Cora McDowell, who is spending a month at her home in Greenville county.

Miss McDowell has been in the office since last November. Her friends miss her very much, but wish her a pleasant vacation and hope she can be "Missed" when she returns.

We hear favorable news concerning the survey of the Black Diamond Railroad.

COMRADE

M. H. DeLong,

of Schuylerville, N. Y., who served in Company B, 10th Mass. Infantry, and had other foes to battle with after his return from the late war. He recently wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for nervousness brought on by the use of tobacco and too close application to business. It gave me prompt relief without leaving any unpleasant effects. The result was beneficial and lasting. I heartily endorse it."

DR. MILES' Restorative Nervine

is sold by all druggists on guarantee, first bottle benefits or money back. Book on heart and nerves sent free. Dr. Miles Medical Company, Elkhart, Ind.

The Rowland Reunion.

We were delighted to meet so many of the descendants of the Rowland family at the reunion on the fourth. A nice dinner was served and all present cordially invited to partake of the elegant repast. Messrs. C. E. Gaillard, B. R. Westmoreland, Wm. Lindsay and others spared no pains in seeing that all present were plentifully supplied with refreshing lemonade.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowland eleven children were born—six sons and five daughters. The surviving children are five sons and one daughter. Six sons went to the Confederate war. W. T. Rowland entered the service of his country with the first Tennessee regiment, May 1st, 1861, and died May 31, 1861, of measles. S. C. Rowland volunteered in Orr's regiment, July, 1861, and died in 1862 at Richmond, Va., of fever. D. H. Rowland volunteered in Orr's regiment in 1861 and died in December, 1869. He was severely wounded in the head, the wound ultimately resulting in his death. W. F. Rowland went to the war in 1862 and died in June, 1862. J. T. Rowland went into the service with the 10-year-old boys, came home in March, 1865, and died on the 29th of March, from a relapse of measles. C. A. Rowland volunteered in defense of his country in July, 1861, in Orr's regiment, but his health being impaired by inflammatory rheumatism and a complication of diseases, would not permit him to remain in the service. He returned home disabled and has never since enjoyed good health. The six sons were never known to be under the influence of whiskey before the war.

Fifty-five grandchildren and thirty-five great-grandchildren are "in"ing.

Miss Flora Reese was a great-granddaughter of Gen. Pickens, and was married to Wm. Rowland many years ago. She was a woman of many noble traits of character and was an affectionate mother. She died January 7, 1894, aged eighty-two years. Her husband was a man beloved by all who knew him. He spent the greater part of his life in Oconee county, and died March 30, 1891, aged eighty-three years.

The day was a pleasant one for every one and will long be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to attend this happy reunion. About two hundred persons were present.

About 4 o'clock the crowd began to disperse, and all returned to their respective homes in the best of spirits.

The out-of-the-neighborhood of the Rowland homestead will be glad to welcome another reunion of the family with their many friends at any time.

J. H. CANTRELL.

Robbed the Grays.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised me to try 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and was well and strong again. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at all drug stores in the country."

Union Meeting at Toxaway.

Programme of the Union meeting at Toxaway (second district) on the fifth Sunday in July, commencing Friday before:

Friday morning at 11 o'clock, sermon by Rev. P. J. Virmillion.

Afternoon—First query: What is the duty of each member to his church? When I have a pen in my hand under a bushel? H. S. O'Kelly.

Second query: What damages are we liable to sustain by the efforts put forth by those Morma Elders (so called) going through our country? Rev. P. J. Virmillion.

Saturday morning. Meet at 10 o'clock. Devotional half hour.

Third query: Why should we be more deeply interested in the education of our children? J. A. Voyles.

Sermon at 11 o'clock.

Fourth query: What effort should be put forth to create more brotherly love in our churches. P. P. Sullivan.

Sunday morning—Sunday school by Rev. P. J. Virmillion.

Sermon at 11 o'clock.

S. C. SMITH, for Committee.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction."

For sale by J. W. Bell, Wallaha; W. J. Lumley, Seneca; H. B. Zimmerman, Westminster.

Making Satisfied Patrons.

Selling the goods at prices that are cheerfully paid is the way we conduct business here. No matter how low in price we may secure the item, nor how fortunate the purchase, it's always offered you with but our regular margin added. And the advantage is always passed along to you. The prosperity of our customers and the success of this store are along the same lines—facts that we always keep in mind when our goods are being marked.

You'll Find Them Right.

Acknowledged leaders in their particular line—just as we desire, with every item offered. This QUALITY feature is but one of our attractions—there's a winning tone to the prices—a feature of our store that always appeals to careful buyers.

Shoes and Hats, Spring Cleaning.

YOU give your house and farm a good cleaning up every spring. Why not give yourself one, too? Your system needs it after going through the hot weather season as much as your house does. We have the Medicine that does the work, and does it well. It contains in every bottle all of the best Druggists know to be useful as system-renovators. Come and see, and let us show it to you, and compare it with what you are now using. All it costs is 50c. and 75c. a bottle. You can't afford to do without it. And if you are just getting over the grip we can help you in that, too. It costs us nothing to show you our Medicines—in fact, we take pleasure always in doing it.
